Dear Healthcare Professional,

Based on our prior conversations and my knowledge of your scientific interests, I would like to bring to your attention GSK's scientific activities at IDWeek™ 2020. The GSK Medical Affairs team will bring forward on-demand materials at our virtual Medical Booth, including mini-talks on vaccine innovations. We are also hosting four educational Learning Lounges during IDWeek™'s scheduled programming.

We look forward to your virtual participation and engagement.
